Judith L. Roman, president and CEO of AmeriHealth New Jersey, is among five panelists scheduled to take part in the third annual New Jersey Association of Health Underwriters' State of the State in Healthcare Symposium.

The event is scheduled for 9 a.m., Thursday, March 3, at the Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital Atrium in New Brunswick, N.J. A light breakfast precedes the 10 a.m. program.

Roman is scheduled to be joined on the panel by Dr. Poonam Alaigh, commissioner of the N.J. Department of Health and Senior Services; Adam Brackemyre, director of federal affairs for the National Association of Health Underwriters; Stephen K. Jones, president and CEO of Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital; and Alan Rubino, president and CEO of Akrimax Pharmaceuticals.

The panel will be moderated by Dale Florio, founder and principal of Princeton Public Affairs Group.

Registration is $20 for NJAHU members and $50 for non-members through Feb. 25. The fee increases after Feb. 25.

For more information, contact NJAHU at 908-349-0789 or visit www.njahu.org.
